

2019 Women's Division Player of the Year Point Breakdown

The following is the 2019 SCPGA Women's Division Player of the Year points breakdown where the Women's Player of the Year, Women's Associate Player of the Year and Women's Senior Player of the Year will be determined.

The "OMEGA Women's Player of the Year" will be awarded to the top point earner who is a Class A PGA member in good standing. The "OMEGA Women's Associate Player of the Year" will be awarded to the top point earner who is an Associate in good standing. The "OMEGA Women's Senior Player of the Year" will be awarded to the top point earner who is a Class A PGA member, 50 years of age or older and in good standing.

Classification is determined by the player's status as of April 1st. For an Associate that elected membership following this date will still compete for the Women's Associate Player of the Year honors.
